

Women in Power

1. What was your first job?

Accounts Receivable/Payable Clerk

2. What inspired you to pursue your chosen career path?

It was related to the degree I took up in university. It is what I love doing and it is where I excel.

3. What steps did you take to facilitate your career progression?

Study all areas related to the job. Be a cooperative and pro active member of the organization. Take each task given as a challenge and be open to changes.

4. What do you enjoy most about going to work?

Think of each day as a learning experience.

5. What are the 3 most important things in your life and why?

1. God-- because He is the source of Life.
2. Family-- they are God's human form to feel His love and just like His love, their love is unconditional.
3. Quality Time-- because no matter if it's more or less time you spend with someone or something, the best should always be given.

6. What advice would you give to other women looking to pursue their careers?

To women who wants to pursue their careers, one has to set her goal as well as her priorities. Know where you excel and go for it. Be determined to reach the goal without compromising the priorities. Quite hard but with God's grace, prayer and faith anything will be possible.
