

Women in Power

1. What was your first job?

Receptionist at my father's surgery on Saturday mornings.

2. What inspired you to pursue your chosen career path?

Practising law looked to be challenging and rewarding.

3. What steps did you take to facilitate your career progression?

I have maintained good relationships with people in my organisation and in the industry. I have worked hard and never taken anything for granted.

4. What do you enjoy most about going to work?

I still find the law challenging and rewarding. As a mother and working on a part-time basis, going to work now has the added benefits of keeping me sane (!) and in contact with grown-ups!

5. What are the 3 most important things in your life and why?

Love, health and happiness.

6. What advice would you give to other women looking to pursue their careers?

To maintain good networks and relationships, to continue learning.
And if they have children, to be flexible and not to worry about the housework!
